OVERVIEW

The best way to appreciate Africa is light of foot and in the thick of it. Our mobile safaris, run by some of the most experienced guides, will take you off the beaten track and show you true wilderness in an unmatched style.

Day 1: Khwai

After pick-up at the Maun International Airport, we start off our tour in the Khwai region. It forms part of the famous Moremi Game Reserve that is well known for its large concentration of game despite its small size. The camp is inclusive of spacious dome-style walk-in tents fitted with fixed-frame raised beds with 2 (two) picnic chairs per tent as well as wash basins. All meals (breakfast, lunch, dinner) are provided. Our staff crew that will handle the camp chores includes a chef, driver, professional guide registered under the Botswana Guides Association (BOGA), as well as camp assistants.

Day 2: Khwai

As we continue with our exploration within the habitat, a morning activity will commence after a hearty and well-balanced English breakfast. Khwai has a share of prolific game-viewing activities as it lies between Moremi Game Reserve and Chobe National Park. After lunch, we set off for yet another game drive before heading back to camp.

Day 3: Khwai-Linyanti

On the third day, we will move from Khwai to the mini-Okavango Delta as adventurers classify the area. The Linyanti area lies in the northern part of Botswana and acts as an international border between Namibia and Botswana. The grasslands, forests, and waterways draw a large number of game and various bird species ensuring a spectacle. After lunch, we head off for yet another game drive before heading back to camp.

Day 4: Linyanti

The Linyanti area has been a stronghold for a variety of game species. Game migrated from Savuti to Linyanti during the diminishing of the river in 1980, thus making the area very prolific in game viewing. Game-viewing activities will be conducted in the morning and concluded with an afternoon drive along the paths that are frequently visited by wildlife.

Day 5: Linyanti-Savute

After a long, idyllic night we rise up at early dawn, hitting the country road from Linyanti up to the Savuti woodland. The transfer will be combined with a game drive with some regular stops to ensure that the wildlife-in-action moments are captured. Later, we head off to the camp to end the day.
