OVERVIEW

Enjoy a thrilling 8-day safari experience throughout the Chobe National Park along the mighty Chobe River. Explore the magnificent landscapes in the Savuti area all the way to Khwai (a special region in the Moremi Game Reserve). This tour surely offers you a close encounter with nature.

Day 1: Kasane arrival

Your guide will meet you at the Kasane International Airport or your hotel. After a short briefing by your guide, we head to the campsite inside Chobe National Park. Your stay in the camp is inclusive of spacious dome-style walk-in tents fitted with fixed-frame raised beds with two picnic chairs for each tent as well as wash basins. All meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner) are provided. Our staff crew that will handle the camp chores includes a chef, a driver, a professional guide registered under the Botswana Guides Association (BOGA), as well as camp assistants.

Day 2: Chobe National Park

We rise early and after a healthy breakfast, we head out for a game drive along the mighty Chobe River. We'll see animals as they come for their morning drink and some predators as they prepare for the day. After lunch, there is time to chat and relax and wait for the afternoon sundowner drive to catch the animals as they go for their last drink of the day.

Day 3: Savuti

On the morning of the third day, we will drive to Savuti which is three hours away from the Chobe National Park camp. There will be a lot of sightings of wild animals and birds on the way, offering a lovely scenic view for your African safari bliss. In the afternoon, we will embark on another game drive. Just before sunset, we will head back to the camp in time for dinner. We have time to refresh and listen to stories told by our guides before we retire to our tents.

Day 4: Savuti

On this day, we discover the best of the wildlife-packed Savuti area. All the game drive activities in the Savuti area will be conducted by professional tour guides. All meals and drinks will be provided for and prepared by the dedicated bush chef. After the game drive, we will head back to the camp for dinner and prepare for our transfer to the next destination.

Day 5: Khwai

We leave camp early in the morning and travel to Khwai which will be a four-hour drive to the new camp. Here, you will spend the next two nights doing game drives in this area. Khwai is famously known to host one of the largest numbers of wildlife. In the afternoon, we will embark on another game drive. Just before sunset, we will head back to the camp in time for dinner. We have time to refresh and listen to stories told by our guides before we retire to our tents.

Day 6: Khwai

We leave the camp early in the morning and visit the popular sighting areas like the hippo pools and the hyena dens as well as other wildlife habitats in this area. The game drives will be in an open-sided vehicle, giving you a chance to have a clear view of the birds, wild animals, and landscapes. After lunch, we continue our game drive until sundown before heading back to camp.

Day 7: Khwai

In the morning, we leave camp and proceed with our mission of looking for interesting sights in this Khwai area. The game drives will last most of the day until we stop for a sundowner late in the afternoon. With its wide variety of wildlife, Khwai offers the real essence of an African safari. After the afternoon game drive, we will head back to the camp for dinner and prepare for our transfer to the next destination.

Day 8: Maun Departure

After breakfast, you travel back to Maun to catch your flight back home as our tour comes to an end. With Maun's prime placement at the foot of the mighty Okavango Delta, you can be sure to have a scenic view as you drive along the dusty road terrains.
